

Pastors Corner - August

In our District Superintendent's July Blog, Javier Olivares asked the question are we doing the right things or are we doing right things. I Liked his article and it gave me pause to ask myself and our congregation are we doing right things. We are doing a great job of doing the right things,; the way we do worship committees, etc.

Are we doing right things? That is the question. I do believe we are and I can also see the relevance in our journey to think about the right things we need to do!

Javier also directed us to think through this intriguing question through the lyrics of this hymn from our United Methodist Hymnal #383. Words: Brian Wren. Music: Carlton R. Young

This is a Day of New Beginnings

This Is a day of new beginnings,
time to remember and move on,
time to believe what love is bringing,
laying to rest the pain that's gone.

For by the life and death of Jesus, love's mighty spirit, now as then,
can make for us a world of difference,
as faith and hope are born again.

Then let us, with the spirit's daring,
step from the past and leave behind our disappointment, guilt, and grieving,
seeking new paths, and sure to find.

Christ is alive, and goes before us
to show and share what love can do.
This is a day of new beginnings;
Our God is making all things new.

Grace and Peace
