

“You are kind, God!” “Wash me clean.” “Make me faithful.” “Help me to speak.”

Little quotes from Psalm 51. It all winds up with God advising us of the true sacrifice that we should give. “Offerings and sacrifices are not what you want. The way to please you is to feel sorrow deep in our hearts. This is the type of sacrifice you won’t refuse.” Psalm 51 CEV

On the evening of February 22, we will have a worship service of ashes. Why do we do this. I think it’s because modern culture does not give us a lot of encouragement for any depth on introspection into our lives. Ash Wednesday becomes that jolt of realization this is a subject we need to participate in even for once a year during Lent.

So might I encourage you to read the complete Psalm 51 in whatever translation you enjoy. Meditate on its words. Take stock in our lives and then let the praises sing out. Our God is good and just and we are forgiven. We are a true resurrection people.

Can I get an Amen?!

Let it Be,
Blessings
